

Bathrooms – relaxing in the bath (or shower) of your dreams after a long hard day may sound like the best news you've heard in quite a while. And with the new possibilities and unique designs available, it's easy to create the bathroom you've always dreamt of.

1. Chromotherapy – or color therapy, which is now being built into tubs, allows you to change the color of the light, setting the mood, and even healing various parts of the body.
2. Body Massage – is now available in the shower via body jets and rain showers that can be installed just about anywhere.
3. Aromatherapy – steam systems release fragrant essential oil vapors uplifting mood and promoting health.
4. Interesting and Unique – just about any design, color or metal finish is available for fixtures and hardware these days. Glass tiles are beautiful, durable and add texture and style. Custom cabinets speak of your individual style and may create additional spaces for storage. Glass vessel sinks provide another possibility for an artistic yet functional statement.
