

Furniture Arrangements

The best way to arrange furniture is according to your lifestyle. Furniture is a tool – set up physical spaces for the different things we do or want to do. Although style is important, it is placement and size of the furniture that makes the difference. Custom furniture, available now in a range of styles, colors, textures and prices is often the best answer.

1. A table in the kitchen can become a gathering area, while a table in another area might invite a child (or yourself) to indulge in something creative.
2. A reading corner or nook will delight the reader in your home for years to come. A comfortable chair, an ottoman with good light from a window or reading lamp and a table strewn with books is the perfect invitation and can be located anywhere in the house.
3. Extra chairs, an ottoman (or two) that can be used for sitting or reclining and furnishings that invite you in to a space and create the special ambiance you want in your home make a statement about who you are and what's important to you.
